is DINING

The cafes and neighborhood taverns characteristic of rural life in North-west Wisconsin still exist and thrive in downtown Ladysmith. If you want a Friday night fish fry, a juicy burger, a healthy salad, or a fresh deli sandwich with soup, you have your choice of establishments. The proximity to small, family-owned farms and the downtown farmer's market allows some of our restaurants to utilize locally grown ingredients, resulting in unique local twists on traditional dishes and farm fresh flavor. Ethnic food is also on the menu, featuring Mexican and Chinese cuisine.
